

Writing Paragraphs: Types of Paragraphs

Level: Elementary School

- Narrative Paragraph: tells a story or adventure in the order that it happened
- Descriptive Paragraph: describes one thing with word pictures and many details
- Expository Paragraph: gives instructions or information about the topic

Read the sentences below and determine whether they belong to a narrative paragraph, a descriptive paragraph, or an expository paragraph. Fill in the blank with "N" for narrative, "D" for descriptive, or "E" for expository.

Topic Sentences:

1. _____ To play soccer, one must learn the rules, practice often, and join a team.
2. _____ Monet's painting, Water Lilies, shows a messy pond that appears peaceful and shimmering with the feathery clouds above reflecting in it.
3. _____ Last Halloween was the scariest, spookiest, and silliest night I ever had.

Supporting Sentences:

1. _____ Buster's cottony, white fur feels so soft and cozy as I lace my fingers through it.
2. _____ After dinner, we went to the theater and saw a play called The Lion King.
3. _____ Once the whites have been separated from the colors, load the whites into the washer.

Concluding Sentences:

1. _____ When we got home from the amazing fishing trip, we made a photo album of it.
2. _____ Following these simple steps will help one be able to bake delicious apple pie.
3. _____ The happy sounds of lively instruments tapered off as the joyful song ended.

Writing Paragraphs: Types of Paragraphs Answer Sheet

1. E
2. D
3. N

1. D
2. N
3. E

1. N
2. E
3. D